International

The 4th International Conference at DCBM concluded with a valedictory ceremony that celebrated key achievements and honored distinguished participants. Esteemed guests included Prof. Kiruba Nagini Raju (IIPE, Canada), Ms. Rana Mohamad (Egypt), and Dr. Anas Iqbal (VSOM). The ceremony highlighted major takeaways, recognized speaker and delegate contributions, and presented awards for best paper presentations in faculty and student categories. It marked a fitting close to a successful conference, reaffirming DCBM's dedication to academic excellence and collaboration.

Indian Knowledge System (IKS) Corner.

The 4th International Conference at DCBM marked a significant milestone with the inauguration of the Indian Knowledge System (IKS) Corner. Rooted in the pillars of Gyan (Knowledge), Vigyan (Science), and Jeevan Shastra (Philosophy of Life), this initiative reflects DCBM's commitment to holistic, value-based education.

In line with the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, the IKS Corner aims to integrate India's rich intellectual heritage into modern learning. The inauguration featured a vibrant cultural showcase by DCBM students, celebrating Indian traditions through art, music, dance, and exhibits.

A compelling video display emphasized the contemporary relevance of ancient wisdom.

From Arthashastra's management insights to sustainable and ethical philosophies, the IKS Corner offers students a deeper, culturally rooted perspective—preparing them to be thoughtful, responsible global leaders.
